Description

We present the Račák family pension, with a restaurant and accommodation capacity of up to 26 beds, located in the nature of the village of Blatná k.ú. Frymburk.

This well-established boarding house is an ideal place for guests' recreation, but it can also serve as accommodation for employees or for permanent residence. It consists of six comfortable apartments, each of which offers its own bathroom with WC, guaranteeing maximum comfort and privacy. The apartments have access to a spacious terrace with a nice view of forests and meadows. The facilities are provided by an equipped restaurant with a kitchen, toilets and a covered outdoor terrace. The building also includes a 2+1 manager's apartment and a shared kitchen for guests.

In the spacious garden, you will find extensive accessories, a workshop, coal and wood storage, a barn, a greenhouse and, most importantly, a large natural swimming lake. The large plot also includes a guest house with its own veranda with a capacity of 6 more beds. Parking is possible in front of the building.

The location benefits from an idyllic setting with beautiful natural scenery that the
